From your pastor...

"Enjoy Life!"

- Don't cry because it's over—smile because it happened.
- Pain and suffering is inevitable, but misery is optional.
- Yesterday is history. Tomorrow is a mystery. Today is a gift—that's why it's called "the present."
- A good exercise for the heart is to bend down and help someone else up.
- Life is what you make of it—kinda like Play-Doh.
- The babbling brook would lose its song if all of the rocks were removed.
- Happiness comes through doors we didn't even know we left open.
- Too often we are like an alligator—all mouth and no ears.
- Even a fish would stay out of trouble if he would keep his mouth closed.
- Everything is always okay in the end, if it's not, then it's not the end.
- How do we know when our mission on earth is finished: If we are alive, it isn't.
- The real art of conversation is not only to say the right thing at the right time, but also to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.
- The easiest way to find something lost around the house is to buy a replacement.
- The older we get, the tougher it is to lose weight, because by then our body and our fat have become really good friends.
- Did you ever notice that the Roman Numerals for forty (40) are "XL"?
- If we think there is good in everybody, we haven't met everybody.
- If we can smile when things go wrong, we have someone in mind to blame.
- The sole purpose for a child's middle name is so they will know when they are in trouble.
- There's always a lot to be thankful for—for example aren't we glad that wrinkles don't hurt.
- A penny saved is a government oversight.
- Have you noticed: When you put the 2 words "The" and "IRS" together it spells "Theirs."

Have a happy day!

Enjoy it because you were able to get up this morning!

Your Pastor, David
